Public Forum:

Members of the public raised concerns with the Breedons site and its use of signage to direct visitors to their site. The chairman informed the public that the council is aware of the issues and have wrote to Breedons and Lincolnshire county council who are monitoring the site. Once/if the council get a reply from Breedons they will inform the public via social media. A member of public raised concerns with the withdrawal of local policing. Cllr Brown asked that the council raise these concerns with Lincs Police and include it on the next agenda. Representatives from East Midlands community housing attended and asked to work with the council strategizing ideas for the site. A meeting was suggested and Cllrs will email their availability.
